Community get-together at E&O Raya open house

Penang, 31 July 2016 – Nothing brings people from all levels of society together like a great, big celebration.

And that was evident at the Eastern & Oriental Berhad (E&O) Hari Raya open house held at the Straits Green public park in Seri Tanjung Pinang here.

The event saw more than 2,000 residents, school children, community leaders and guests from all walks of life from the Tanjung Tokong area and beyond, feasting on popular Hari Raya fare under the comfortable shade of a huge canopy.

Among the delectable festive spread were stir-fried noodles, satay, kambing golek (mutton), cucur udang (prawn fritters) and desserts such as ice kacang, soya bean milk and soya bean curd.

Clad in colourful traditional Malay attire, E&O Property (Penang) Sdn Bhd general manager Zawawi Yusop and a group of E&O staff were seen busy welcoming guests, greeting each of them personally, shaking hands and embracing some, as they walked single-file into the area.

While the elders took the opportunity to exchange greetings with their neighbours, the youngsters were spotted taking wefies with family members and friends.

In his welcome speech, Zawawi said such gatherings to celebrate the major festivals in Malaysia enabled E&O to connect and foster closer ties with the community surrounding its Seri Tanjung Pinang development.

“The strong camaraderie prevailing among the crowd is something we strive to constantly promote within the communities that we operate in. Festive events such as these are perfect for bringing people together,” he said.

School children from SK Tanjung Tokong and Tadis Ar-Rasyiddin later showcased their talent and entertained the guests at the open house with two traditional Malay dance performances.

Also present to grace the open house was Bukit Bendera MP YB Zairil Khir Johari.
