E&O brings festive cheer to the elderly

Penang, 13 September 2016 – Some 100 elderly residents at Bethel Home in Lebuah Katz and Gat Lebuah Cecil enjoyed wonderful mooncake treats, courtesy of Eastern & Oriental Berhad (E&O).

A team of staff members, together with teachers and students from SJK (C) Hun Bin visited the home and handed over the goodies to the elders in celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival.

Earlier, the E&O team had collaborated with the Parents and Teachers Association (PIBG) of SJK (C) Hun Bin to specially bake the mooncakes from scratch at Straits Quay.

The residents also received daily essentials such as body care products and other food items.

The elderly folk were all smiles as the young children from SJK(C) Hun Bin gleefully presented their gifts.

E&O group strategy and communications (Penang) senior manager Ann Tan Khoon Yan said the programme was part of the group's ongoing corporate social initiatives.

“Such a visit not only brightens up the day for the folk at Bethel Home, it also gives us a great sense of fulfilment from the act of giving,” she said.

“We look forward to organising more of such programmes to give back to the community in the near future,” she said.
