E&O contributes RM200,000 to Penang’s CNY celebrations

Penang, 16 December 2016 – Lifestyle property developer Eastern & Oriental Berhad (E&O) continues to be a part of the Chinese New Year festive celebration in Penang for the eleventh consecutive year.

This time, E&O is the main sponsor contributing RM200,000 to the state government’s Penang Chinese New Year Lantern 2017 event held in conjunction with the Lunar new year celebrations.

The highlight will be a spectacular display of lanterns in different thematic designs at Dewan Sri Pinang from Jan 26 to Feb 26 for public viewing. Admission is free.

During a mock cheque presentation ceremony officiated by YAB Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng today, E&O group corporate strategy director Lyn Chai said it was an honour for the Group to continue its long-standing commitment to support such socio-cultural festivals in Penang.

“We expect this year’s luminescent, beautifully designed lanterns to draw the same overwhelming public response like they did at last year’s event.

“E&O is extremely honoured to be part of this meaningful event which showcases the rich culture and heritage of George Town.

“Our participation underscores E&O’s deep connection with the past, present and future of Penang --- as custodian of the over century-old heritage landmark E&O Hotel, to the development of the award-winning masterplanned Seri Tanjung Pinang seafront community, as well as looking ahead to Seri Tanjung Pinang Phase 2,” she said.

E&O group hospitality and lifestyle director Michael Saxon added, “Penang makes a great melting pot for modernity and tradition as it sustains the rich values of heritage with community-centric activities such as the forthcoming Penang Chinese New Year Lanterns 2017 event.”

Also present at the cheque presentation ceremony was Tanjung MP Ng Wei Aik.
