Hari Raya open house with a green touch E&O launches Think Green Booklet

Penang, 16 July 2017 – The Hari Raya festive spirit mingled with a sense of love for the environment at the Eastern & Oriental Berhad (E&O) Aidilfitri Open House at Seri Tanjung Pinang, which coincided with the launch of the Group’s Think Green booklet.

The 72-page, colourful booklet filled with photos of Think Green activities through the years captures the journey of E&O’s community education programme journey since its inception in 2013. It is also a tribute to the people, groups and establishments that have supported E&O’s efforts to build a long-term focused and meaningful community engagement programme in Penang.

“Think Green has come a long way since we started in 2013. This journey has only been possible with the contribution of our primary community outreach partner, Consumers’ Association of Penang (CAP) as well as our permaculture design partner Cultivate Central who helped us shape and drive the Think Green food garden and programme”, said E&O Property (Penang) Sdn Bhd general manager Zawawi Yusop.

Zawawi added that the success of the Think Green programme also rests on the support rendered by the core community of schools, namely SK Tanjung Tokong, SJK(C) Hun Bin, SJK (T) Azad, Tadis Ar-Rasyidin, SMK Tanjung Bungah and SK Pendidikan Khas Persekutuan Pulau Pinang. Activities with these participating schools as well as CAP are featured throughout the Think Green booklet.

“We hope the ideas and activities shared within the booklet will be beneficial to anyone wanting to create green urban spaces, grow food in small spaces and cultivate community spirit with children,” he said in his welcome remarks during the open house event.

State Religious Affairs, Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Committee chairman Datuk Abdul Malik Abul Kassim and Bukit Bendera MP Zairil Khir Johari were also present at the event which saw some 2,000 guests from the local community attending.

These included Seri Tanjung Pinang residents, community leaders, school teachers and even expatriates who started thronging the marquee before noon and exchanged festive greetings amidst a palpably celebratory atmosphere.

An array of traditional favourites and modern dishes from the local community such as satay, kambing golek, cucur udang, ice kacang, fried chicken and briyani rice, were among the treats awaiting the guests.

As the guests savoured the mouth-watering spread, they were entertained by traditional dance performances by students of SK Tanjung Tokong and Tadis Ar-Rasyiddin.
